Friday, June 8. 1716

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 11.

Vienna, May 27.

WE have received the following Particulars of the taking the important Post of Mitrovizza upon the Frontiers of Turkey, whereof we have spoken in our former. General Leffeltoltz, before he sent the Men thither, sent an Officer to the Bassa of Belgrade, to let him know, that in case the Express sent the 6th of April from Vienna to Constantinople, returned not with a Satisfactory Answer by the 15th of May, his Orders from the Emperour were to do it: And in regard that the expected Answer is not come, he was obliged to take Possession of that Post with Imperial Troops; but assuring the Bassa, that the Men should be withdrawn from thence, as soon as we are assured that there will be no War between the Emperour and the Sultan. The same Officer had Order from General Leffeltoltz to ask the Bassa, if he had any News of the said Express. To all which this Ottoman General answered, That he was extremely surprized at this beginning of Hostilities, since the Sultan had given no Occasion or Reason for it: That he should send an Express to the Porte to give an Account of it: That in the mean time he thought the Reason why the Express tarries so long, may be, that when he came to Constantinople, he might find the Sultan and Prime Vizier gone from thence to Adrianople, and that M. Leffeltoltz following the Ottoman Court, could not receive his Orders so soon as we expect, and consequently could not dispatch a speedy Answer. But altho' the Bassa of Belgrade looks upon this seizing the Post of Mitrovizza as a Breach of the Peace, we flatter ourselves that the Ottoman Porte will not interpret it as such: However, their keeping this Express so long, seems to intimate, that the Porte endeavours to hold our Court in Suspence this Summer, or part of it at least, and in the mean time to drive the Venetians out of Dalmatia.

Brage, June 12. It is taken for Certain, that an Express who came by the last Packet-boat to Baron Heems, has brought the Treaty we have so often mentioned, of Guaranty of the Succession and Barrier, lately concluded at the Court of Great Britain, by the Count de Volckra. This Express was immediately sent away to Vienna. Here is arrived at the same time an Express from Paris, to the Ambassador of France, who made extraordinary Haste in his Journey; and it is not at all doubted, that he brings Advice of the Signing of that Treaty, and Orders to redouble his Efforts for hindering this State entering into it. But that Ambassador having at present a Fe of the Court upon him (which hinder'd his coming to the Feast made by the Ministers of the King of Great Britain on His Majesty's Birth-day) has not been able to sit in it. We are assured, that in that Treaty there is an Article whereby some Time is allowed to the States to come into it.

The Deputies of the Province of Guelderland, have proposed by Order of their States, a rate such Order, that without further Delay, they will arrears which the King of Prussia has to pretend upon this State, for Troops furnished by him during the late War, may be paid: Which being found Just and Reasonable, the States General have begun to write thereupon to the Provinces, upon whom that Payment is assigned. The Deputies of the Provinces of Guelderland and Utrecht, have also insisted, that an amicable Conclusion be made of the Differences between the Parties at Law, concerning the Succession of Orange; in Default whereof, they will hold themselves discharged of the Executorship of the Last Will and Testament of the late King William, and not be responsible for the Inconveniencies that may happen in Case of further Delay.

The Execution of the Placard of the 10th of December last, against Corruption, remains suspended, because the States of the Provinces of Guelderland, Zeland, Utrecht, and Groningen, have not yet given the requisite Orders to their Deputies to the Assembly of the Generality, concerning the Instructions for a Fiscal of the Generality. And in regard that the Scandalous Reports daily continue, to the Disadvantage of the Government, and those that have been at the Head of it, and the Design of that Placard being to dissipate such Reports, either by shewing that they are groundless, or by punishing those that have been culpable, if any such are found, the States-General have written earnestly to the said Provinces, to delay no longer the expediting the necessary Orders to their Deputies, for proceeding to an Election of a Fiscal, and by Consequence to the Examination of the Administration of Publick Affairs for the time past.

The Secretary of this State at Paris, is ordered to reclaim a Ship laden with Wine, which is arrested by the Custom House of Nanter, because there were found in the Hards of the Seamen, four Pieces of Indian Painted Callicoes; the Owners of the Ship having made Oath, that they had no manner of Knowledge of it, and ought not to suffer for the Seamen's having broken the Orders of the Court of France. This Affair has been also earnestly recommended here, to the Ambassador of France, for him to write favourably of it to his Court.

The General Receivers of the Union, have presented a Memorial to the States, to desire them to make the most pressing Instances to the Princes and States that have borrowed Monies here, under the Guaranty of the States, to satisfy forthwith their respective Obligations. And there being divers of those Loans upon the Account of the Austrian Netherlands, we expect with Impatience the Arr- of the Marquis de Prié, to regulate them, and hasten the Payments.

The Countries given up by France, to the late Peace, not being yet surrendered to the Imperialists, and the Time of changing the Magistrates approaching, Count Conigseck has proposed to the States by their Intendant Peltier, an Expedient, which is to continue, merely by Writing, the Magistrates of the Cities and Chateaux in question, till those Places shall be duly remitted to his Imperial Majesty; which has been approved of.
